

1792 Kinsale Loyalty Petition

JOHN EARL OF WESTMORELAND
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland

May it please your Excellency,

We his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, and the liberties and limits thereof, thinking ourselves called upon at this time to present a dutiful and loyal address to our most gracious Sovereign, do most humbly entreat your Excellency to lay the same before his Majesty.

Happy in the enjoyment of the blessings derived from the excellent Constitution of this Kingdom, under his Majesty's most auspicious Government, and your Excellency's wise Administration, we think it our duty to return our sincere thanks to your Excellency, for the prudent and vigorous measures adopted by your Excellency to check the progress of Tumult and Disorder, upon their first appearance in this Kingdom. - Kinsale, 21st Dec. 1792.
